With the Wireless Media Adapter 300N, you can easily connect a computer to a wireless network that uses two wireless frequencies. The Media Adapter can transmit wireless signals via the 2.4 GHz frequency and the less congested 5 GHz frequency. The 5 GHz band guarantees optimal performance for time-sensitive applications, such as audio and HD video streaming, gaming and VoIP, without interference. In combination with a "N" router, speeds up to 300 Mbps and an optimal range are guaranteed. Thanks to the "One-push Setup" functionality, a secure wireless connection can be created with the push of a button.
